

Anna Eifert

OneMind Dog Agility Workshops

Saturday & Sunday, June 10–11, 2017

Day 1, Morning: OMD Basics

Subject: OMD basics without obstacles, plus jump game with wings and bar on ground.

Who's invited: Puppies/Young Dogs

Time: 9 am to 1 pm

Day 1, Afternoon: Techniques & Applications

Subject: After a short lecture, we will practice short sequences with a very detailed theory of techniques: where, what, when, why, and how to use.

Who's invited: Anyone new to One Mind Dogs, or dogs at least 10 months. Should have some obstacle experience: jumps and tunnels. Contacts are not required.

Time: 2 pm to 6 pm

Day 2: Coursework

Subject: A full day of coursework, geared to more advanced teams with OMD experience.

Who's invited: Teams that have previously worked with an OMD coach or assistant coach.

Time: 9 am to 5 pm

ANNA EIFERT

Anna Eifert is a OneMind Dogs trained coach and international competitor.

Anna started doing agility in 1999, with her Miniature Bull Terrier Giovanni; she has been teaching agility seminars since 2007.

Anna was one of the 20-plus world-class agility athletes who traveled to Finland in January 2015 to kick off the yearlong OMD Coach Pilot. She works as a full-time agility trainer in her own company in Hungary. OMD methodology enables her to chase her dreams as it works with all kinds of dogs. Her current dogs are smooth Border Collie, Nevia, and young Miniature Bull Terrier, Du. She has also run Belgian Shepherds and Schipperke.

Anna has made the podium at several events on the world stage. Some results with Nevia:

2006 – FCI Agility World Championships, Switzerland, 2nd

2008 – Border Collie Classic, Netherlands, 2nd

2009 – Hungarian National Champion

2010 – Crufts (British Open and International, Great Britain, 1st

2012 – IFCS World Championships, USA, 1st (Biathlon World Champion)

2013 – Hungarian National Champion

Seminar will be held at Port Chester Obedience Training Club
