Site notices

There are 2' x 2' pillars in our rings.
 Although very close, this diagram is not 100% to scale.

This is a dog training facility.

Being a popular and well-used training facility means it is subject to the smells and visual distractions inherent in such a facility. To the best of our ability, the ring areas are thoroughly cleaned and odors neutralized but there will likely be stains on the mats.

Due to space constraints, No X-pens

Dogs must be on leash at all times in and outside the facility unless being shown.

Please do not let dogs relieve themselves on the church property across the street.

Should you forget your own; water, crates, chairs, and waste removal products are available for your use.

Parking

Parking is available in our lot behind the facility. You may park in areas marked “loading zone” in our parking lot. When the lot fills, please park on surrounding streets.

Sunday the 2 hour limit is NOT enforced but there is a church across the street whose members also park on the street mid/late morning. Arrive early for the closest-to-the-facility street parking.

Hospitality

Coffee and pastries will be available in the morning. You are welcome to use our refrigerator, freezer and microwave. Driving directions to the nearest pizza place, grocery store and Subway will be available at the show.

Email Addresses

For fastest delivery of your confirmation provide an email address on your entry form!! When confirmations go out after the closing date; your confirmation can come by email that same day or you can wait 2-3 days for the post office to deliver it.

Entry Form Legibility

Please ~ carefully PRINT LEGIBLY on your entry form. If the secretary cannot read your entry, it is not valid/accepted until the secretary gets the information and you may get shut out!
 Please send ONE check PER DOG, PER TRIAL.

Scheduling information

These trials will run CONCURRENTLY and will start at 9:00am.

Concurrent trials allow us to, ideally, schedule your 2 runs, in 4 hours or less! Two runs with a fresh dog instead of a sleepy, stiff, tired dog that's spent hours in a crate waiting for a PM trial to start.

Additionally, it allows us to accommodate more exhibitors in our parking lot. By getting exhibitors in/out in the morning, parking for other exhibitors opens up in the afternoon.

It does not matter if your run in trial 2 happens before your run in Trial 1.

There can be no day-of transfers (move ups) once the trials start. If you Q in one trial, a transfer (move up) is not possible for the other trial. This is because the transfer form must be received before the trial starts. Since they both start at the same time you cannot Q in one trial then move up at the next.

Obedience trial schedule

Multiple dogs + multiple classes + one handler = conflicts. Conflicts will be handled the day of the show.

To help you visualize it, below is one possible schedule

Ring 1 / Trial 1 Utility A/B Novice A/B Preferred Utility Preferred Novice Open A/B	Ring 2 / Trial 2 Preferred Open Open A/B Preferred Novice Preferred Utility Novice A/B

AKC Code of Sportsmanship

PREFACE: The sport of purebred dog competitive events dates prior to 1884, the year of AKC's birth. Shared values of those involved in the sport include principles of sportsmanship. They are practiced in all sectors of our sport: conformation, performance and companion. Many believe that these principles of sportsmanship are the prime reason why our sport has thrived for over one hundred years. With the belief that it is useful to periodically articulate the fundamentals of our sport, this code is presented.

- Sportsmen respect the history, traditions and integrity of the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen commit themselves to values of fair play, honesty, courtesy, and vigorous competition, as well as winning and losing with grace.
- Sportsmen refuse to compromise their commitment and obligation to the sport of purebred dogs by injecting personal advantage or consideration into their decisions or behavior.
- The sportsman judge judges only on the merits of the dogs and considers no other factors.
- The sportsman judge or exhibitor accepts constructive criticism.
- The sportsman exhibitor declines to enter or exhibit under a judge where it might reasonably appear that the judge's placements could be based on something other than the merits of the dogs.
- The sportsman exhibitor refuses to compromise the impartiality of a judge.
- The sportsman respects the AKC bylaws, rules, regulations and policies governing the sport of purebred dogs.
- Sportsmen find that vigorous competition and civility are not inconsistent and are able to appreciate the merit of their competition and the effort of competitors.
- Sportsmen welcome, encourage and support newcomers to the sport.
- Sportsmen will deal fairly with all those who trade with them.
- Sportsmen are willing to share honest and open appraisals of both the strengths and weaknesses of their breeding stock.
- Sportsmen spurn any opportunity to take personal advantage of positions offered or bestowed upon them.
- Sportsmen always consider as paramount the welfare of their dog.
- Sportsmen refuse to embarrass the sport, the American Kennel Club, or themselves while taking part in the sport.

NOTICE TO EXHIBITORS

Telegraph, Telephone, Fax, Email and unsigned entries cannot be accepted. Entries not on official AKC entry forms, downloaded and/or photocopies of entry forms without agreement and rules on the reverse side of the official AKC entry form are not acceptable.

Mail all entries with fees to Lori Carver, 91 Michael Sear Rd., Belchertown, MA 01007. Entries received without fees will not be accepted. Confirmation via email will be made no later than 7 days before the trial. Exhibitors who do not provide an email address will receive entry confirmation via USPS. Should confirmation (email or USPS) not be received by the exhibitor within 7 days of the trial please contact the trial secretary.

Make all checks and money orders payable to PCOTC, no credit or debit cards will be accepted for payment. Canadian exhibitors must make fees payable in U.S. funds. The trial Secretary assumes no responsibility for cash sent through the mail. Tabulate carefully. Due to the cost of processing no refunds of $4.00 and under will be made.

An AKC recording free of .50 first entry only and an AKC Event service fee of $3.00 per entry will be required for each dog entered at any licensed or member club show, obedience trials or tracking test. An AKC recording fee of $3.00 will be required for each entry in any licensed or member club rally trial. All recording and event service fees are paid to the AKC.

No entry shall be made and no entry shall be accepted which specifies any conditions as to its acceptance—multiple entries made by one handler will be spaced day of the show. Be prepared to have an extra handler for obedience stays if showing more than one dog!

Entry fees shall not be refunded in the event that a dog is absent, disqualified, excused by veterinarian or judge or barred from competition by action of the event committee. If because of riots, wars, strikes, civil disturbances, national emergencies, health emergencies, and dictates of law enforcement or the owners(s) of the grounds and/or facilities or other acts beyond the control of the management it is impossible to open or to complete the event, no refund of entry fee will be made. Extreme weather conditions, such as, but not limited to snow storms, hurricanes, lightning, extreme heat, heavy rains, or other circumstances including but not limited to the condition of the facilities or grounds and /or the ingress and egress from the grounds, must be considered to the health and safety of the dogs, exhibitors and spectators. The well-being of dogs, exhibitors and spectators is of paramount importance and in the event it is necessary to cancel or stop the event before completion, no refund of entry will be made. To find out about any AKC event cancellation call the AKC Event Cancellation Hotline 877-252-3229.

Postdated checks, returned checks do not constitute valid entry. If limits are met and your check is returned, the entry will be denied and that spot given to someone on the waitlist. If the trial is not full, the trial secretary will add a collection fee to the amount of each returned check of $40 and entry must then be made with money order only and paid prior to the closing date.

An administrative fee of $5.00 will be withheld from refunds for processed duplicate entries discovered after the closing date. Every effort will be made to find and return duplicate entries before processing.

Errors on entry forms: Owners are responsible for errors in making out entry forms, regardless of whomever may make such errors, and no entry fee will be refunded in event of such errors or cancellation of entries after the closing date.

Each Owner and agent listed on the entry form and/or individual responsible for the dog at a show is bound by the certification and agreement on the front and back of the entry form regardless of who may have completed and submitted the entry form.

As specified in Chapter 12, section 4, of the AKC rules applying to dog shows, information contained on the entry form is required to be published in the show's catalog. This information is also subject to publication in other media.

Dogs may arrive any time prior to their scheduled time for judging—the facility will open at 8:00am. Dogs not required for further judging will be excused.

Judges will not wait for any dog holding up a class. Owners or agents alone are responsible for the presence of their dogs in the judging ring when their classes are called to be judged.

All dogs present must be held on leash or confined to their crates except when being judged.

All dog feces must be picked up, failure to do so will result in a trial committee hearing and excusal from the show grounds without refund of entry fees.

No gasoline or diesel generators. No electrical hook up inside the facility.

AKC Rules, Regulations, Policies and Guidelines are available on the American Kennel Club Web site, www.akc.org
